

OPINIONS DIFFER ON THE VALUE OF COOPERATIVE BILL

Praised and Attacked at Hearing Before Committee

(By The Associated Press) SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 21.—Marked difference of opinion among farm organizations as to the value of the cooperative marketing bill on second reading in the senate developed today at a hearing on the measure in comparison as meaning the salvation of the farmer and attacked as a menace to existing farm cooperative organizations.

Walton Peete, director of cooperative marketing for the American Farm Bureau Federation, which is supporting the pending bill, declared that in order to bring back prosperity to Illinois farms, the state must adopt such cooperative legislation which is in line with laws passed in 18 other states.

The bill is based on the expansion of successful farmers' cooperative marketing plans in California, the cotton and tobacco states and other sections," Mr. Peete said. "Our present cooperative laws are based on experience to 10 to 12 years ago, much of which has been unsuccessful."

Charles Adkins, of Bement, former state director of agriculture speaking for the president of the Illinois Grain Dealers' association asserted that the pending bill threatened existing cooperative plans and provided nothing better in their stead.

Samuel Farlow, secretary of the Cooperative Grain Dealers' association spoke against the bill on the same grounds. He was interrogated by Senator Dailey, Peoria, who asked if preferred stock in cooperative organizations organized under the pending bill could be acquired by any one who did not own grain.

Mr. Farlow replied that the bill would be possible for one or two persons to control such cooperative organizations.

Plead University Case Advocates of the $10,500,000 appropriation for the University of Illinois addressed the senate and house appropriations committees at a joint meeting this afternoon.

President Kinley of the institution in the budget had been trimmed to the limit. Appropriation of $8,000,000 for proposed operating expenses and $2,500,000 for buildings and land in the next two years. Governor Small in his budget proposed a total of $9,205,000.

"It is strange," Dr. Kinley said, "that the wealthy state of Illinois is not able or does not see its way clear through its public officers to contribute to its state university as much a year per capita as do the people of Michigan, with less than three-fifths the population and one-half the wealth."

Other speakers for the larger appropriation were J. H. Camlin, president of the Illinois Chamber of Commerce; J. G. Iphodien, Decatur and C. A. Rowe, Jacksonville representing a grievance interests and several representatives of Rotary clubs throughout the state in addition to several heads of departments at the university.

At the meeting of the house committee on license and miscellany called to consider the Gallias and Epstein boxing bills, it was decided to have a sub-committee hold hearings later on both bills. Hearings will take place in Chicago and Springfield.

The senate today ordered engrossed for third reading the bill of Senator Cuthbertson, Bunker Hill providing for the removal of county and municipal officers for misconduct in office. Fifteen bills went into the senate record and eleven made their appearance in the house. On behalf of the committee on transportation, Senator Earl B. Searcy, Springfield, presented a joint resolution requesting the interstate commerce commission to save the Chicago, Peoria & St. Louis railroad from abandonment by resorting to the zoning and grouping system of freight shipments.

ORDERS OPERATION OF N. Y. C. SHOPS ON AN HOURLY BASIS

Labor Board Hands Down Decision in Case Yesterday

(By The Associated Press) CHICAGO, March 21.—The New York Central railroad was ordered to operate its shops on an hourly basis instead of a piece work basis, as they have been operated, in a decision handed down by the United States labor board today.

The case was brought before the board by the Railway Employees Department of the American Federation of Labor claiming to represent about 9,000 shop crafts employees of the New York Central. The decision asserted that the piecework basis of pay was installed without compliance with the provisions of the transportation act and ordered the hourly basis continued until some other method was adopted by the process provided by law.

For the period of time employees have been working on a piece work basis the board ordered that they be compensated at a rate of pay, the average of which shall not be less than the hourly rates of pay established by decisions of the board. The case arose after the road shut shops in February, 1921, contracted out most of its shop work until November and then reopened them on a piece work basis. The carrier claimed it had obtained an agreement from a majority of its employees by vote to operate under the piece work system but the union asserted it took a vote which resulted in 8,395 employees voting against piecework and 286 voting for it.

The board held that the railroad in taking a vote among employees had not complied with the transportation act which specifies that authorized representatives of the carrier and the employees shall conduct negotiations. This, the board said the carrier failed to do.

Under a previous decision the board had held that the New York Central had installed the piecework system, Elkhart, Ind., in a proper manner thru negotiations with authorized representatives of the employees. This decision board members said would probably not be altered by today's order.

SENATOR BORAH WANTS PARTY TO QUIT GUM SHOEING

Republicans Must Do This if Third Party is Avoided

(By The Associated Press) AKRON, Ohio, March 21.—Inviting his party to "quit gum shoeing" for votes and adopt a clear cut fearless program, Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho, declared in an address here tonight that by such a course Republican leaders could put an end to a third party movement which now appears "not improbable."

Political conditions are distressingly unsatisfactory to both political parties," said Senator Borah, speaking at a banquet held in honor of Abraham Lincoln by the Republican county committee. "The voter is alarmingly independent. Party lines are shadowy and uncertain. Party leaders seem confused. The rank and file are distrustful. And yet people are deeply and profoundly interested in public questions and eager for information upon all political problems."

"If I were to suggest the underlying fundamental vice of American politics at this time, I would unhesitatingly declare that it consists in playing the game on too low a standard for the intelligence and patriotism of the voter. The problems now pressing for attention are in many ways the most difficult ever presented to the American electorate. We know these problems are here and no one can be unconcerned in regard to them. But we seem to lack boldness and determination in dealing with them."

"In my opinion what we really lack is not capacity, not intelligence, not understanding of the task, but a want of faith apparently in the willingness of the electorate to follow a bold and determined program. We are still trying to hold together and win battles thru the power of patronage, the appeal to past party achievements and denunciation of the opposition. It is a fearful mistake. The people are far ahead of their leaders both in conception of duty and of courage."

CO-EDS MAY RIDE IN AUTOS FROM THEATER

So the rule was changed today to provide that the "legitimate use of the automobile as a means of transportation is recognized," but indiscriminate "storing," or "riding without a chaperon or the presence of more than one couple after 9 o'clock is banned."

RECOGNITION OF RUSSIAN SOVIET FLATLY REJECTED

Secretary Hughes Gives Women Reason for Refusal

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, March 21.—Secretary Hughes today flatly rejected an appeal to recognize the Russian soviet government made to him by representatives of the women's committee for recognition of Russia and in a formal statement declared the salvation of Russia cannot be contrived outside and injected. The statement was made to the delegation in reply to arguments it advanced, touched Russian government, trade, finance, economics and various political influences and the soviet affecting international relations.

Mr. Hughes' discussion of these subjects did not reveal any probability of action by the Washington government looking to recognition of the soviet although the hope was expressed that conditions in Russia would change in a way which would make America's helplessness available to the people of that country. It is his dominant thought, Mr. Hughes said, to find a ground for helplessness, recognition and restoration of peace in Russia.

Secretary Hughes' remarks to the delegation which contended that world peace and the stability of Europe depended on immediate recognition of Russia by the United States follow in part: "It gives me great pleasure to receive you and I want you to know that I deeply appreciate the sincerity and the earnestness with which you speak."

So far as charity is concerned, it has been poured out lavishly. I do not think that any fair minded person can doubt the heart of the American people and our desire to give relief. But as you have pointed out charity is not enough. The problem is far deeper than that. It is an economic problem and humanitarian interests, however, keen they may be, cannot escape the underlying and controlling facts. Not only do we not desire to interfere with the destiny of Russia, but we not only do not recognize the right of the Russian people to develop their own institutions, but such interference would be futile.

"The salvation of Russia cannot be contrived outside and injected. Russia's hope lies in Russia's action. It is absolutely impossible to deal with matters which are in the control of the Russian people which must be handled by the Russian people themselves. We have no ground for helplessness, no ground for Russian recuperation."

"Russia needs industry and trade but industry and trade cannot be created by any formal political arrangements. However, important may be the facilitation of the transaction of industry and trade thru political arrangements still those arrangements do not create the industrial basis or supply the essential basis for them. You cannot support what does not exist."

"We have in the case of Russia the need of investment. It would not help the Russian people to encourage adventures, or those who would wish to go into Russia for the purpose of exploitation. The benefit to Russia thru which her productivity can be increased and the basis of industry and trade provided must come from those who make a permanent investment in Russia, who are there to see their transactions thru on a basis of permanent relations and who consequently so far as they are foreigners can be assured before they will contemplate such investments that these will be secure and worth while. The conditions which would invite the foreign investment which you point out is so necessary are in the control of the Russian authorities."

"They cannot be in the nature of things supplied from the outside. I am glad to note that agricultural conditions in Russia have somewhat improved because agriculture is basic in Russia. There is hope in that fact, but agricultural conditions are still far from what they should be. The conditions of industry and trade are most lamentable. If you need to know what those conditions are I refer you to the soviet authority, Mr. Rykov, and his statements last fall, which no doubt are accessible to you and the analysis of which I think will correct some of the rather optimistic statements that you have made."

Whatever fault may be found with the new tariff, it is proving a revenue getter. The receipts for March are expected to reach $10,000,000, the largest monthly tolls on imports in the history of the country.
They have begun the wrecking of the buildings on the east side of the square to make room for the new bank building. Jacksonville is tearing down her old buildings to build greater ones, which is a sure sign of progress.
Speaking of creation, science knows how to make entirely new substances from existing elements. Practically all materials used in the construction of a modern steel and concrete building do not exist in the natural state.
It is doubtful if some of the art work found in the Egyptian tomb could now be reproduced. The plans used in building the pyramids have been lost. Aged races and nations, like aged people, have failing memories.

TRAFFIC PROBLEM.
The other day as a busy corner in the loop district a collision occurred which might have resulted seriously. The narrowness of the street had a great deal to do in causing the accident. It would be next to impossible to widen the streets around the loop; but something should be done to relieve the congestion there. Making one way streets in these spots has been suggested, and it is a plan that might prove workable.
The traffic problem in Jacksonville really concentrates itself at only a few congested centers. If some sort of definite regulations could be applied to these centers, most of the problem would be solved.
ENTERTAINING STRANGERS.
Scores of strangers visit Jacksonville every day. Each one carries away some impression of the town and its people. What he says of this city after he leaves it depends much upon the manner in which he is housed, fed, talked to and dealt with while he is here.
What the stranger will say of Jacksonville will have its influence far and wide. Facts demonstrate that his word has weight in aiding or hindering the prosperity of the town, in keeping other strangers away, or in bringing them here, some of them to stay.
A new and thoroughly modern hotel in Jacksonville would heighten the stranger's opinion of the city. He would go away declaring that he had been better housed, better fed, given more pleasant surroundings, then ever before. The more careful attention this city gives to entertaining strangers, the more strangers will come, and the better things they will say about the city when they leave.
IMAGINARY ILLS.
A nerve specialist tells us, a woman came to him on the verge of collapse, and it developed that what she really wanted was advice about investing her money. Doc gave the advice, collected his fee. The patient went her way—relaxed, contented, cured.

A queer case. Not unusual, according to the nerve specialist. We're all more or less in an unbalanced nervous condition as a result of the war, and the specialists have come to expect anything.
Nerve specialists report a big increase in case of pretended illness, technically known as hypochondria. A hypochondriac is a person with morbid anxiety about his or her health.
Frequently a hypochondriac's mental distress actually produces counterfeit symptoms of the imagined malady.
The hypochondriac fits from malady to malady. One day, he imagines he has cancer of the stomach. Next day, a fear that Bright's disease is developing. And so on, leading the doctor a merry chase, he meantime feeding the patient bread pills.
The hypochondriac usually is imitative—hears that some one has a certain malady, then begins fearing he has the same.
A generation ago the "hypo" was considered a mental case, and even doctors smiled a trifle at him—when they weren't cursing behind his back.
Now it is recognized that an unbalance of the body's endocrine glands is the most common cause of hypochondria. If the thyroid or adrenal or pituitary glands are too active or not active enough, the victim often becomes neurotic, imagining all kinds of symptoms, fear fitting from disease to disease.
In such condition, the "hypo" is sincere in the belief that all the maladies in the universe are clutching him.
There's still another type of hypochondriac—where the patient takes illness and knows it. The motive here is to attract sympathy and attention, craves affection and attention, pretends to be ill.
We all have this craving for sympathy and care, though few of us are willing to "enjoy bad health" to get it.
As for the glandular-neurotic type of "hypo" it's much more agonizing to imagine you're ill than really to be ill, especially in the clutches of the mysterious maladies that originate in the endocrine glands or the imagination, and which as yet are only vaguely understood by the medical profession.

Life, until the shadows lengthen, and the evening comes, and the busy world is hushed, and the fever of life is over, and our work is done. Then of thy great mercy grant us a safe lodging, and a holy rest, and peace at the last; thus Jesus Christ, our Lord, Amen.

WHITE HALL, March 21.—Work has begun on the switch to serve the Pegram clay mine, one mile south of Berdan, on the C. & A. MT. EMORY CHURCH REVIVAL IS CLOSED

A large audience assembled Wednesday night for the closing service in the revival at Mt. Emory church. Rev. Mr. Gore preached a forceful sermon, taking his text from Daniel 3:17 to 19. It was a service in which great interest was manifest, several coming forward to unite with the church at the close of the sermon.

After the service a brief farewell reception was held in honor of Rev. Mr. Gore who expects to leave today for St. Louis to conduct a revival service. The Gored club, which was organized Saturday, presented him with a useful gift, and Miss Susie Lynch read an original poem dedicated to the young evangelist. The officers of the Gore club were also installed at the close of the service last night.

RADIO EXPERTS ARE WRESTLING WITH PROBLEM

Considering Ways and Means to Better Conditions

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, March 21.—Informed by two days of discussion of other conflicts and obstacles now hampering wireless use, radio experts and government officials attending the radio conference here went into executive session late today to consider action which may lead to betterment of conditions.

Commissioner Carson of the commerce department's bureau of navigation, acting chairman of the conference, said a day or more might be necessary before the conferees could solve all its problems.

The primary object will be to parcel out among users new and less conflicting bands of wave lengths and to prescribe operating conditions which will allow commercial, broadcasters, marine navigators, the army and navy and amateurs to be less hampered in their operations.

CIVIC FEDERATION

The letters declared it "essential that the necessary work of giving Illinois the system of good roads she needs be not jeopardized by 'Pork Barrel' methods."

J. G. Black, president of the association described plans for a National advertising and publicity campaign. Officers will be elected tomorrow.

ABANDON PLAN TO

REV. C. D. ROBERTSON
GIVES REVIVAL SERMON

Takes as His Theme "The Sin of Indifference"—Music Feature of the Service.

By far the largest and most enthusiastic service of the Union Revival series occurred on Wednesday evening. By the time Prof. Lovejoy commenced the song service, every available seat in the auditorium and balcony was filled. One of the attractions was the great chorus of young people from the high school, 150 strong, that filled the choir loft and the chancel and overflowed into the audience. This chorus directed by Prof. Lovejoy led the congregational numbers, "Lo The Soft Winds," and "Gentle Zephyrs" which were heartily applauded by the audience. Mr. Lovejoy remarked that the ensemble singing in this revival is the best he ever had the honor to direct the success of which is largely due to his magnificent and magnetic leadership.

Dr. F. M. Rule presided over the program in his usual gracious manner. Dr. T. W. Smith read the scriptures and Dr. A. P. Howells offered the prayer. The ushers were North minister men; J. A. Scott, Joshua Vasconcellos, Vincent Vieira, Chas. C. Pires and Nelson De-Frutes.

The Rev. C. D. Robertson, of Centenary church brought the message of the hour. "My theme," he said, is "The Sin of Indifference." It is an important and disagreeable subject, and I intend to make it disagreeable that the reaction from it may be genuine. Midway between the optimist and the pessimist is the normal man, who realizes the ends of his time and sets himself with determination to correct them.

The people of Jacksonville are indifferent to conditions here. They content themselves with criticism of officials without lifting a finger to assist them. The ugliest thing I see in our city is that the leaders in business, society, education, are neglecting matters of the highest value, the things that root themselves in the consciousness of men. There is deplorable indifference to the claims of family religion. If, and when young people go wrong, parents are to blame. They have deserted the home and left the children to follow their own sweet will. There is also much indifference to personal sin. If you look your soul squarely in the face and shut out of your heart all other thoughts but that of God and yourself and find there memories that make you shiver these are danger signals you dare not disregard. When it comes to that creation into which God has breathed his own spirit and on which he has stamped his own image, you say, let the preachers look out for that.

We are indifferent to our priceless privilege and heritage in Christ. Christianity is not an easy thing. Jesus never invited people to a slumber party. He calls for sacrifice and service. If things in your city, your home, your life, are not what they ought to be, you are to blame.

There is only one cause big enough to challenge the courage, the loyalty, the intelligence of men and that is the Eternal Kingdom of God. I am calling you to sacrifice for God and humanity. If Christianity doesn't get busy it will require a long time to take up the moral slack in their lives.

The speaker then called for all who would agree to take a greater interest in the cause of Christ to give their hands to the pastor who stood in front of the chancel. A large number responded.

Tonight the Glee Club of Illinois College will lead the singing and furnish special musical numbers.

WHAT GOOD HOTELS
DO FOR A TOWN

Two conventions held in Des Moines brought into that city between $5,000,000 and $6,000,000—enough money to pay for both of the new Des Moines hotels three times, says a local daily.

During the War, two hotels, aggregating about 650 rooms, were erected in Des Moines, almost simultaneously. It was the general prediction among observers that the Des Moines people were overdoing the hotel matter and that nothing but trouble could come to other hotels of the city from these new houses. In spite of this the new hotels have been running almost to capacity since they were completed and the old houses have been so pressed with business that they have raised their rates much higher than they ever had them before.

During 1920, the city of Des Moines, through the efforts of the convention board, secured the general Methodist conference. This meant about 15,000 to 30,000 Methodists; ministers and those prominent in the church from all over the world stayed in Des Moines for about a month. Estimating these people as $5.00 a day, which is quite a low figure, it would mean over $3,000,000 brought into Des Moines from this one convention.

In 1921 the Shriners held their national convention at Des Moines. The convention was originally set for Atlantic City, but due to the fact that Des Moines is more centrally located and the rates at Atlantic City were entirely too high at this season of the year, the convention was changed to Des Moines. I am told there were 50,000 Shriners in Des Moines for the week. Estimating these at $10.00 per day, which I believe you will agree is not a very large amount, there would be in this case another $3,000,000 brought into the city by the hotels.

It is fair to say, without these two new houses Des Moines would not have secured either of these conventions and approximately $5,000,000 to $6,000,000 that the city received in its various lines of business. The two hotels together did not cost very much over one-third of what was brought in by these two conventions alone.

Due to the superior accommodations offered, Des Moines is now a very active convention town. I believe the average being a convention every other day in the year, with a corresponding benefit to every line of business in the city.

CANVASS FOR HOTEL
PROJECT IN PROGRESS

Team Workers Will Urge Subscriptions on Basis of Both City Pride and Investment—Fund Now Totals $111,400.

The teams for soliciting of subscriptions for Jacksonville's new hotel were organized yesterday and work was begun. However many of the team members were unable to begin the work until today and canvassing will be pushed beginning with this morning.

Some subscription were added yesterday to Tuesday night's total but most of the team captains indicated to Chairman King that no report would be ready until today. The total of subscriptions last night was $111,400, which means that $8,600 remains to be secured.

Canvassers will seek stock subscriptions on the basis of city pride and because of the opportunity for investment. It is a well known fact that scores of Jacksonville people yearly send away thousands of dollars in investments in outside enterprises many of which never succeed. In the Jacksonville hotel enterprise the opportunity is offered for investment in a business which will be a great aid in developing the whole community, and at the same time offers the possibility of fair interest return on the investment.

The hotel business as it relates to the smaller city has changed very materially in the last ten years, due to increased travel. Hotel men will tell you that during the period mentioned the business has been very profitable and the prospect is for a still greater profit in the coming years because of the development of the hard road system and the increase in automobile traffic.

It is because of the increase in business that new and modern hotels have been erected in hundreds of American cities within the last few years, and are projected in others. No other city with good hotel facilities is near enough Jacksonville to interfere with the business here. A modern, comfortable hotel will mean more business for Jacksonville and the whole community will benefit.

The average visitor gets his first impression of the city from its hotels and the impression he carries away is made from that same hotel. This fact alone is sufficient to impress the need there is for treating visitors well if Jacksonville wishes a good impression to linger with its visitors. Without such good impression there is less opportunity for growth.

In thinking over the question of taking stock in the new hotel enterprise remember that while you are making a contribution to the development of Jacksonville, that the subscription is also a safe investment.

FORMER RESIDENT
DIES AT MACOMB

Mrs. Robert Rexroat Dead After Long Illness—Lived in Morgan County Until Her Marriage.

(From Macomb Bystander)
Mrs. Robert H. Rexroat died at her late residence, 437 North Lafayette street, about 11 o'clock yesterday morning, after an illness dating about three years, aged 48 years, 11 months and 29 days.

Laura Idella Rexroat, was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Rexroat and was born near Concord, Ill., March 26, 1874. There she grew to womanhood and on February 9, 1892 was united in marriage to Robert H. Rexroat. Immediately following the marriage they commenced house-keeping on a farm in Scotland township which he had purchased and together they commenced a life of love and toil. For ten years they worked on their farm with and for each other, as falls to the lot of those who, in anticipation of a pleasant old age, endure the hardships of frugality and toil that their last years may be blessed with a competence which would provide comfort and pleasure as the tide of time slowly drifts their bark to the harbor of eternal life and their thoughts dwell on the ambitions of the future but reminiscences of the past.

But such was not to be. The will of an all-wise Providence ordained otherwise. About three years ago she became afflicted with cancer. That her case was hopeless was concealed from her by her friends but all the time she knew and from them she kept the fact that she knew. It was not until a short time ago, when her condition was such that it was apparent to everyone that she could not recover, did she confided to her loved ones that she had known all of the time of her exact condition. Her brave heart had never faltered and until the very last did she fight on.

She had been a faithful member of the Presbyterian church for many years. She was a member of the King's Daughters of this church. Of fraternal orders she was a member of the Eastern Star, the Royal Neighbors and the Tri-State. To know her was to love her as was shown by her friends thru their countless kindnesses during her illness.

She is survived by her husband, one son, Howard; four sisters, Mrs. Margaret Sperra of Upland, California; Mrs. Edna Murphy, Concord, Ill.; Mrs. Minta Haney, Mrs. Rosella Erickson both of Jacksonville, and three brothers—William, Alva and Lee, all of Jacksonville.

The Newton One Minute Grain Grader and Cleaner is worth your looking after. It will make money. JACKSONVILLE FARM SUPPLY CO.

Funeral Notice.

Funeral services for Mrs. Rexroat will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the residence of Frank Ledford, 653 East 8th street.

FOOD robbery is often disguised. Vital essentials of diet are left out and the defect hidden by quantity, looks and taste.

Phosphorus is a food element necessary to the body. Nature provides it in her good grains—but extra "refinement" in the milling processes throws it away.

Grape-Nuts supplies phosphorus as a part of the well-rounded, perfected nourishment from wheat

Grape-Nuts with cream or milk is completely and soundly nourishing; so crisp and delicious that every member of your family will greatly enjoy it for breakfast, lunch or supper.

ILLINOIS INDOOR MEETING TONIGHT

Present Senior Class Won Contest Last Year—Will Try to Repeat Tonight—Strong Competition Promised

Tonight, at 8 o'clock, in the Illinois College gymnasium the track men will hold the floor in the annual interclass indoor meet.

The present Senior class won the contest last year by a comfortable margin mainly through the prowess of their superman, Mellon. When it comes to the medicine ball he is in a class by himself. Last spring Mellon won the 16 lb. shot put in the Illinois Intercollegiate conference meet with a mark of more than 40 feet. He is likely to lose the 12 lb. shot in tonight's performance. Capt. Gunn, of last fall's football team, Hatfield, Howells' Ivie, Nickel, Strawn and Headen will help Mellon in the effort to duplicate last year's win of the meet. Weber and Rogers, who are regular varsity track men will lead the Juniors in their dash for the pennant. "Shorty" Butler, the elongated varsity basketball guard will show the boys how to cover considerable ground in the standing broad jump. "Bill" Roberts, captain-elect of the 1923 football team, will also carry the Junior colors. If he and Weber can do as much damage in indoor track stunts as they did to the Augustana and Monmouth college teams in their recent clashes with the Illinois College teams, the other classes may as well hang up their rubber-soled shoes tonight.

Rubendall, Tom Smith, Ifner, Thomason and Miller are remaining Junior entries who are counted on to score points.

The Sophomores have a classy looking array of entries. Dale, Struck and Billings are members of last spring's varsity track team. C. Martin, a Pike county boy, who left college several years ago, returned this year and may be the dark horse of the meet tonight. If "Jack" Roberts, the varsity basketball guard, should score as many points tonight as he did against Eureka in the last game of the season he will do a good evening's work. Stone, Purry, Stevens, Govett, Stringley, Hart, Mabrey and Harris make up a big field of Soph entries.

Look out for the Freshmen! They have won the interclass football game with the Sophs, have cleaned up the inter-class basketball tournament and now they are out to conquer in indoor track just to demonstrate their versatility.

McBride, the pole vaulter from Girard, is a nifty performer who will land points tonight. Martin, Schreeder, Henry, Johnson, Sides, Overfelt, McGee, Wells, Walker and Pickler are the untied boys of the freshman class who will display their wares for the first time tonight.

An admission charge of 25 cents will be made. The proceeds will be used to defray the cost of placing in the gymnasium the pictures of winning interclass athletic teams and the pictures of all-varsity athletic teams.

Coach Harmon will act as referee and starter. Charles Hopper will be clerk of the course. Profs. Ames, Guild, Lacey and Pogue will be the judges.

Mother-To-Be, Read This—

Here is a wonderful message to all expectant mothers. When the little one arrives, you can have that moment more free from suffering than you have perhaps imagined. An eminent physician, expert in this science, has shown the way. It was he who first produced the great "Mother's Friend," Mrs. C. J. Hoffman, Sr., says: "With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I used Mother's Friend and had only a nurse. I was not very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes."

Write for free book, "Motherhood and the Baby," containing important information, and all about "Mother's Friend," to Dr. J. Hoffman, Sr., 214 N. 2nd St., Atlanta, Ga. "Mother's Friend" is sold by druggists everywhere.

FARMERS MET LAST NIGHT AT DUBBIN
Large Audience Heard Address Last Night by Mr. Beiler—Meeting at Mt. Zion Tonight.

A well attended meeting in the interest of the Morgan county farm bureau was held at Dubbin church Wednesday night. A very interesting address was made by Mr. Beiler, formerly president of the Normal college at Minot, N. Dakota, and now engaged in work for the speakers bureau of the Illinois Agricultural association.

Mr. Beiler emphasized the necessity of farm organizations and then gave some interesting historical facts to show that the downfall of Rome and Greece was largely due to the neglect of agriculture.

Three reels of moving pictures relating to agriculture were shown by County Agent G. B. Kendall.

A similar gathering will be held tonight at Mt. Zion church, with an address by E. L. Corbin, of Macoupin county, who is a member of the executive committee of the Illinois Agricultural association. Mr. Corbin is directing a part of the Morgan county farm bureau campaign.

Amazing How "Gets-It" Peels Off Corns
Stops All Hurting Instantly

It's just wonderful how "Gets-It" ends corns and calluses. Put a few drops of "Gets-It" on a burning corn and presto! The pain stops at once, forever. Soon the corn loosens from the true flesh and you just lift the corn off with the fingers and all complete. Money had guarantee. Costs but a trifle—everywhere. E. Lawrence & Co., Mr., Chicago. Sold here by Armstrong's drug store. Coover drug store. Long's pharmacy. And J. F. Shreve.

Guard Against "Flu" With Musterole
Influenza, Grippe and Pneumonia usually start with a cold. The moment you get those warning aches, get busy with good old Musterole.

Musterole is a counter-irritant that relieves congestion (which is what a cold really is) and stimulates circulation. It has all the good qualities of the old-fashioned mustard plaster without the blister.

Just rub it on with your finger-tips. First you will feel a warm tingle as the healing ointment penetrates the pores, then a soothing, cooling sensation and quick relief.

Have Musterole handy for emergency use. It may prevent serious illness. 35c and 65c, in jars and tubes. Better than a mustard plaster.

Cuticura Heals Itching Burning Eczema On Head
"When I was about two years of age I broke out with eczema. First it started in small spots and then ran together until my head was covered with sores. There were also a few spots on my face. It caused great disfigurement and loss of sleep. The itching and burning were something awful, causing me to be very cross."

"My parents decided to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment. After the first treatment there was immediate relief, and before they had finished one cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment I was completely healed." (Signed) George Bolle, DuPo, Illinois.

Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Talcum are all you need for every-day toilet and nursery purposes.

Sample Each Free by Mail. Address: "Cuticura Laboratories, Dept. M, Malden, Mass." Send 10c. Return 10c. Ointment 25c and 50c. Talcum 50c. Soap 25c. Cuticura Soap shaves without mug.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Brought Relief When Other Medicines Failed

Winston-Salem, N. C.—"I was weak and run-down and had trouble with my side. I had been taking medicine for a long time and nothing seemed to do me any good. My husband went to the drug store and he said to the clerk, I want the best medicine you have for women's troubles. He gave him a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has helped me. In a short time I was able to do my housework, and now I am not only able to do every bit of that washing and ironing, but I help my husband at the store."

Market Report

By The Associated Press

SPECULATORS FOR ADVANCE CONTROL STOCK MARKET

FINANCIAL.

Day's total sales $1,343,000 shares.
20 industrials averaged 105.23; net loss .15.
High 1923—105.38; low 96.96.
20 railroads averaged $9.67 net gain .07.
High 1923—99.63; low $4.53.
Total sales (par value) $11,423,000.

NEW YORK, Mar. 21.—Speculators for the advance assumed control of today's stock market from the start, bidding up prices in all sections of the list and carrying more than a score of shares to new high levels for the year.

Profit-taking sales brought about a partial reaction in the late dealings. Operators on the long side of the market were encouraged by the resistance shown by yesterday's market to the selling pressure occasioned by the violent fluctuations in Piggy Wiggly, by the strength of French francs, but the sales of copper at 17½ cents a pound, a new high price, and by the optimistic nature of the weekly steel and iron trade reviews.

While the annual report of the United States Steel corporation showed that the corporation had failed to earn all its dividends last year it disclosed an excellent cash position as December 31, and revived interest in the steel group. United States Steel common touched 109 ½, a new top but closed more than a point below that figure for a net gain of only 1.

Gains in Bethlehem, Crucible, and Gulf States which had been as high as three points also were reduced to fractions. Otis Steel preferred closed 2 points higher.
